

East Bay Wetland and Water Quality Protection Project (Texas)

The East Bay Protection Working Group, comprised of Federal and State agencies, nongovernmental organizations, and private industry, has protected almost 8,000 acres of diverse coastal habitats along the East Bay from severe erosion and habitat degradation. The placement of critical erosion control structures through a highly cost-effective collaborative effort provides protection for a remote and largely pristine part of the Galveston Bay system.

Nominated by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

Galveston Bay Foundation

Courtney Miller

Phillip Smith

Bob Stokes

Natural Resources Conservation Service

Eddie Seidensticker

NRG Texas, LLC

Breck Sacra

Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, Galveston Bay Estuary Program

Jeff DallaRosa

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Doug Jacobson

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Anahuac National Wildlife Refuge

Steve Baker

Kelly McDowell

Shaun Sanchez

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Texas Coastal Program

Debbie Devore

John Huffman

Scott Williams